01 LOGO FAMILY

ONE HAND, DRAWN IN LIGHT

Every mark is the same fluid script, set in a halftone of sharp dots. Softness only ever comes from the dots getting smaller. Each SVG has every dot as a vector circle, so it scales to any size; the PNGs are 4096 px wide. Each file is cropped to its ink on a transparent ground: light is Lumen white for dark grounds, dark is black for light ones.

PRIMARY

02 SYMBOL

LP, THE ONE-STROKE MONOGRAM

The L's foot runs under the p and into its bowl. From 64 px down, use the small cut: fewer, bigger dots that still read as a screen. Below about 48 px the dots stop holding.

05 USE

KEEPING IT RIGHT

01

Use the files

Never retype the name in a script font or redraw the dots. Export from the logo lab or take a file from below.

02

Leave room

Keep clear space of at least half the symbol's height on every side of any mark.

03

Mind the size

Word marks from 240 px wide on screen (40 mm in print). The symbol from 64 px, the small cut down to 48 px.

04

Two colours only

Lumen on Night, or Night on Lumen and white. No gradients, tints or outlines on the mark.

05

Don't stretch or blur

Scale in proportion. The dots stay sharp; never add a glow or a drop shadow.

06

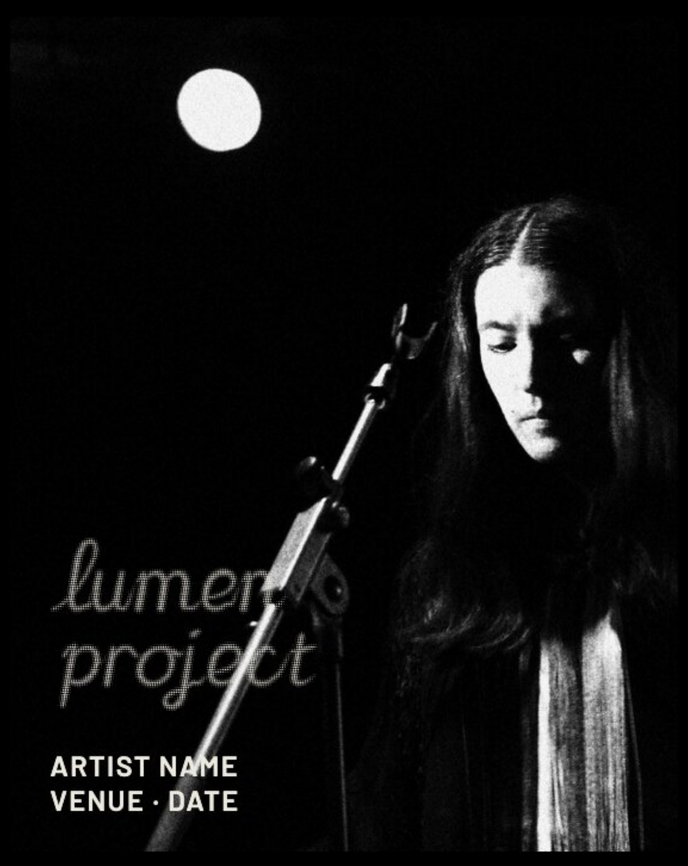

Over photos

Place light marks on the darkest, calmest part of the image, or use the symbol in a corner.

06 IN USE

ON LUMEN'S OWN IMAGES

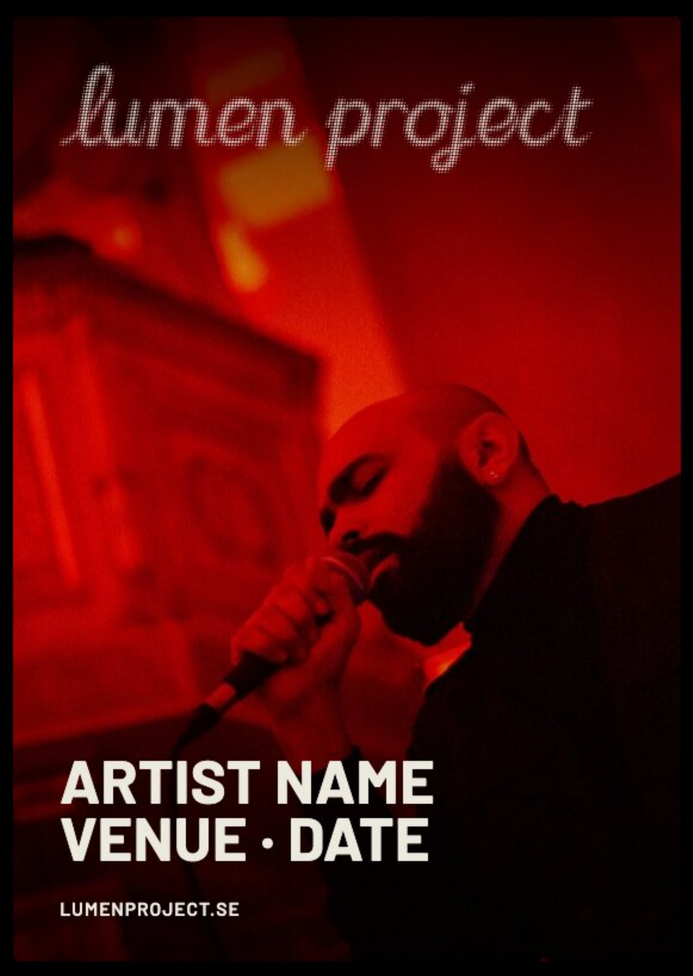

Minimal layouts on photos from the lumenproject.se gallery (several by Olga Androsova). The mark sits in the darkest, calmest part of the picture; where the picture has none, a soft shade is added under it, never a box.
